

The Gift of the Dolphins

Love Heals. Joy Transforms. Dolphins are unconditional love and joy.

My spiritual journey with the dolphins began in 1995 as a pod of dolphins surrounded our boat. I asked them telepathically, “What are you here to teach us?”

“Unity / Community,” was their reply.

A year later I found myself alone in the ocean, face-to-face with a wild Spinner dolphin. A few clicking sounds later, he swam away. In the days and weeks after that magical moment, I watched amazed as people received spontaneous transformational experiences in my presence. Somehow, I had become a vehicle for the energy and consciousness of the dolphins.

Back in my desert home in Sedona, Arizona, the dolphins came to me in meditation and asked me to become one of their ambassadors on land. They told me that it is not necessary for humans to be in physical contact with dolphins to receive their love and gifts. Their consciousness transcends time, space and physicality. They invited me to share their healing energy with humans, and to make this my profession.

More than a bit reluctant to put myself out there in the world as a “Dolphin Ambassador and Dolphin Energy Healer”, I could not deny the magic I was witnessing. Again and again I saw people open up right before my eyes. Suddenly we were connecting from a place of deep intimacy. The dolphin energy seems to touch a place deep inside us, a place that longs to be touched, to be recognized, and to be set free.

If just talking about dolphins has this kind of affect on people, what else can their energy do? I wondered. I said YES to the dolphins’ invitation, and began sharing their healing energy with anyone who was willing to receive it. Over time, with specific guidance from the dolphins, these sharings evolved into formal Dolphin Energy Healing sessions.

What is Dolphin Energy? It is the frequency of Joy...of Movement...of Creating Flow-- the flow of Love, the flow of Abundance. It is an Opening of the Heart, as never before.

I am continually amazed by the depth and power of the healing technology the dolphins transmit through me. Each client’s experience is unique. We are all in awe of the unconditional love, safety and acceptance that seems to penetrate to our very core.

I now see the dolphins as living masters upon the Earth. They know us better than we know ourselves. They see our essence, our radiant wholeness. They also see, clearly and without judgment, our illusions of separation, our limiting beliefs, and the patterns of protection that we have created around ourselves. The dolphins gently reconnect us to our own true essence, and help us to realize it in our daily lives.

As my connection with the dolphins deepened, I realized that this frequency was my home. I longed to MERGE with them, fully and completely, for all of time. But how could that be possible?

One of the dolphins' greatest joys is to help us manifest our deepest heart's desires. They want us to discover our joy...and then live it...be it!

They took me on as a project. As I delivered their healing energy to clients, the dolphins led me on a journey to my own heart...to the manifestation of my own deepest heart's desires. This journey lasted seven years. (Some of us are slow learners!)

In January 2003 the breakthrough occurred. I awoke one morning feeling brand new. The dolphins had merged my human consciousness with theirs. We became ONE. Since that time, my life has taken on a quality of vibrancy and aliveness that surpasses anything I have ever experienced.

That journey is now complete...but it was not just for me. The dolphins told me, "Now it is time to initiate others to this path."

In that moment, my work with the dolphins shifted to a new level. My focus now is mentoring others through the radical transformation the dolphins gave to me. The vehicle for this transformation is a revolutionary new spiritual school, created and taught in collaboration with the dolphin consciousness--Dolphin Healing HeArts...A Gateway to the New Paradigm.

The dolphins are making a profound gift available to humanity. This gift is one of the planetary keys to support humanity in making the shift away from lives based in struggle and fear...to lives based in love and joy.

"We are changing the course of history," the dolphins said. "It's time."

Are the dolphins calling you?
